I, _____ give _____ permission to enter his/her story (“Story”) in the Water Fest 2017 “Every Drop Counts” Student Writing Contest (“Contest”). I warrant and represent that the Story is his/her own original writing and that he/she is a middle school or high school student who resides in or attends school in Trophy Club. We understand the Story must be 500-1000 words double-spaced, typed and submitted on 8.5”x11” white paper and illustrate methods a scientist would use to solve the water shortage problem. I agree that the Story will not be returned and is the property of Trophy Club Municipal Utility District No. 1 (the “District”). The copyright and all other rights, title, and interest in the Story shall be owned by the District. The Story may be displayed in newsletters, social media, media announcements, in the Svore Municipal Building lobby, at the Water Fest 2017 event and on the District website. I agree that the District shall have the right, but not the obligation, to use my child’s name and photograph in connection with the Contest and the Water Fest event.
